The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, May 5, 1763. [No. 939.]

LONDON, February 3.

WE hear that it is proposed to keep standing 83 Regiments of Foot, of 1000 Men each; of which 25 will be kept in Great-Britain; 38 in Ireland; 6 (on the Irish Establishment) in Minorca; 6 (on the Irish Establishment) at Gibraltar; and 20 in America and the West-Indies.

The Wilson, Lee, from Virginia, is on Shore at Erith; but will be got off after being lightened.

The Division of the Money taken, seems to afford great Discontent; and it is a wide Disparity, if one Commander is to have 30,000 l. to his Share; while a Subaltern has only 91 l. and 21 l. 10 s. is all that comes to a private Man. To say this makes one Man as valuable as near 30,000; and making the Lives of so many as equivalent only to one.

Feb. 17. We hear that Sir Edward Hawke, for the eminent and never-to-be-forgotten Services he did his Country, in the Destroying of, and rendering useless, so great a Part of the French Navy in November 1759, and thereby saving their Kingdoms from the Terrors of a powerful Invasion; and Sir George Pococke, for the distinguished Services he did his Country in the East-Indies, and in the Conquest of the Havannah, are both to be made Peers of Great-Britain: An Honour conferred upon Persons of so much Merit, cannot but be highly applauded by a brave and grateful People.

Tuesday Evening Richard Neville Aldsworth, Esq; Secretary to the Embassy to his Most Christian Majesty, arrived in London with the Definitive Treaty, which was Signed at Paris on Thursday last, the 10th Instant.

A Letter has been sent to the Lord Mayor from Lord Egremont, Secretary of State, with the News that the Treaty was Signed.

The Gentlemen Lieutenants of the Royal Navy have proposed to the Lords of the Admiralty, that to provide for near 20,000 Seamen, who will now be discharged, all the King's Frigates, armed Ships, &c. which can be properly converted to this Service, be employed, to the Number of 250 Sail, making 125,000 Tons of Shipping, manned with 17,500 Seamen, and 2500 Non-commissioned Officers, paid by the Government as at present, and under the same Regulations, and entitled to the same Privileges in the Whale-Fishery at Greenland and Davis's Straits.

From an Estimate of the Gain made by the Dutch in this Fishery, it appears, that after all Charges, including Wear and Tear of the Ships employed, there would be a Profit of 300,000 l. yearly, besides establishing a Nursery for Seamen. Employing Seamen in the Government's Pay in this Branch, would be less injurious to the Merchants than employing them in any other, because Ships in the Greenland Fishery are obliged to carry three Times the Number of Hands required in sailing Vessels of equal Burthen; and never more than 3000 have been employed in it in any one Season.

The Amount of the national Debt on the 5th of January last, was 122,603,336 l. 8 s. 0 d. 1 q. bearing an annual Interest of 3,409,797 l. 13 s. 8 d.

February 19. The French Court, sensible of the Defects of their Colony and Plantation Laws, propose to form a new Code, modelled on the Laws of the British Plantations.

The current Reports are, that the Explanation of some Articles in the Definitive Treaty, which the Duke of Bedford demanded, were lodged by the French King's Council as injurious both to the Honour and to the Interest of France, but they unanimously declared that they ought not to be granted; but the peremptory Manner in which his Orders insisted on them, determined his Majesty, who was desirous of putting an End to the War, cost what it would, to command his Ministers to sign the Treaty, with the Explanations required, without Regard to the Remonstrances of his Council.

It is also said that Richard Neville, Esq; who brought over the Definitive Treaty, received from the King a Present of 1000 l. and that it was ratified by his Majesty last Wednesday.

It is said, that just before the Definitive Treaty was signed, the Duke of Bedford had actually discharged a Messenger, with an Account of his intending shortly to return Home, because the French Court had refused to comply with the present Terms of the Treaty; but that the Messenger was, at the Request of the French King, sent for back; who had a Conference called a Council, and notwithstanding the Pretext of several of his Council, he immediately signed the Definitive Treaty, agreeable to the Terms of our Court.

It is said a Proclamation will be speedily issued out for proclaiming Peace the 30th of next Month.

Whitehall, Feb. 19. On Tuesday Night last, Richard Neville, Esq; Secretary to his Majesty's Embassy at the Court of France, arrived with the Definitive Treaty of Peace, signed at Paris on Thursday the 10th Instant, by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, the Duc de Praslin, and the Marquis de Grimaldi; Ambassadors-Extraordinary and Plenipotentiaries for the Part of his Majesty, the Most Christian King, and the Catholic King. To which M. de Melle, Ambassador and Minister Plenipotentiary of his Most Faithful Majesty, acceded the same Day.

Yesterday about Noon, three Waggons, containing thirty-four Boxes, and four Casks of Gold and Silver, landed at Deal, out of the Gosport Man of War from Virginia, came the Bank of England, guarded by a large Number of Officers.

They write from the Havannah, that Dr. Wimpringham, Physician to his Majesty, and Physician-General to the Army, has ordered all his Share of the Effects taken at the Havannah, to be divided among the poor Soldiers. As they risked their Lives, and fought for the Conquest, he said they ought to reap the Advantages of the Fatigues and Difficulties they had gone through. His Share is equal to that of a Colonel.

The Coventry Frigate, from a Cruize, is arrived at Plymouth, and has brought in the Peggy and Elizabeth, Brigs, from Virginia, which she retook from the Spaniards.

The Rt. Hon. Charles Townshend, Esq; is appointed First Lord of Trade.

And we have that Lord Hardwicke will be made President of the Council.

We hear that 25 Regiments of Foot, less than was at first proposed, will be kept on Foot during a Peace.

The Definitive Treaty between Great-Britain, France, Spain, and Portugal, was signed at Paris by the respective Ministers in the Evening of the 10th Instant, at the Duke of Bedford's House, his Grace being confined by the Gout.

Letters from Hamburgh of the 25th Instant, inform us, that it was reported there, that the Prussian Minister had received an Express from Leipsic, with Advice that a Treaty was signed at Leipsic on the 8th; and would be published in Saxony on the 20th: That the Prussians, as well as the Austrians, were to evacuate that Electorate in the Space of six Weeks, or two Months, at the farthest; and that what chiefly accelerated this salutary Work, was the King of Prussia's consenting to give his Vote for the Archduke Joseph to be King of the Romans; and that the Election of this Prince to that Dignity would be immediately set about.

No authentic Account of Peace being signed between the Houses of Austria and Brandenburg, had been received at the Hague on the 29th.

The Letters from two different Parts all spoke of it, however, as certain; but varied as to the Day of its being signed; some mentioning the 28, others the 5th, and others the 8th. The principal Articles are said to be as follows:

1. The Empress Queen shall cede to the King of Prussia the County of Glatz.

2. The Empress shall also cede to him, for an equivalent in Money, the Upper Quarter of Gueldres.

3. The King of Prussia, as Elector of Brandenburg, shall not oppose the Election of a King of the Romans, and shall give his Vote for the Archduke Joseph.

4. All other Affairs shall be put on the same Footing as before the present War.

5. The King of Prussia shall indemnify the King of Poland in Money.

We are informed that every Thing in the East-Indies, was settled to the entire Satisfaction of both Nations.

We hear that we are to remain in Possession of Martinico, and Guadaloupe three Months longer, from the 18th of April, and to have some other considerable Advantages for three Months longer after that, till the 18th of October.

They write from Barcelona of the 18th ult. that the Spaniards are to keep Possession of the Places they conquered from Portugal till the English have evacuated the Havannah.

Extract of a Letter from Corse, dated Nov. 1.

"I am sorry to acquaint you of this News, that on the 13th of October, between the Hours of two and Three in the Afternoon, while we were all sitting at Dinner at the Governor's House, about Twelve in Number, unhappily the Magazine in Fort Elisabeth blew up, which had in it above Eight Thousand five Hundred Weight of Gunpowder. The Governor's House, where we dined, was not above Twenty Yards from it; but, thank God! none of us were hurt, altho' the greatest Part of the House tumbled down about us. The Person that was sitting in my Room, which was not Five Yards from it, was killed, and I have lost all my Things except what I had on my Back. Two Centinels standing at the Governor's Door were killed. Never was a narrower Escape known; I believe we had several People wounded. The Negro Town took fire, and was killed and wounded. The Negro Town took fire, and was consumed in a Quarter of an Hour."

By private Advices from Paris we are informed, that the famous Monsieur Lally had been tried there, for certain Misdemeanors and Crimes supposed by him to have been committed in the East Indies; but his Enemies not being able to make any Thing material appear against him, we hear he was honourably acquitted.

The Sum to be raised by Subscription this Year, it is said, will be Three Millions, and One Hundred Pounds Sterling for every Subscriber of 100 l. is to have 80 l. in Annuities, redeemable at Pleasure, at 4 per Cent. and 20 l. in two Lottery Tickets.

The Caroline, Friend, from Philadelphia for London, was taken the 13th of last Month, being Ten Days after the Cessation of Hostilities, by a Spanish Privateer, and carried into Bilboa. The Spaniard confined Captain Friend a short Time, and would not suffer him to write.

Feb. 26. His Majesty's Ship Ludlow Castle, is appointed to go to Senegal and Goree, with an Account of the Definitive Treaty being signed; they are also to acquaint the Governor of Goree what Time that Place is to be delivered up to the French.

The Hawke, Capt. Wastie, from Virginia, left from Ireland, bound to London, is above near Boulogne. The Crew were all saved, and most of the Cargo will be saved; and they have great Hopes of the Ship.

Notwithstanding the Peace is concluded, we shall be furnished with the Names of those Troops we have knowledge what Time, in consideration of Troubles that must be to be fulfilled while they are in Europe.

The Federation Pink, Donnahill, is arrived at Dingle, from Virginia; the same to the Crew of the Peggy, Galatt, from Virginia as likewise, which foundered at Sea.

Letters from Madrid say, the last Mail advise, that they had an Account from the East Indies, that a Fleet of English Men of War, with a Body of Land-Forces, under Col. Draper, had gone against the Philippine Islands.

A Dutch and Hamburgh Mail arrived this Day, by which we have undoubted Intelligence, that the Definitive Treaty of Peace between the King of Prussia on the one Part, and the Empress Queen and the King of Poland on the other, was concluded and signed at the Castle of Hubertsburg, on Tuesday the 15th Inst.

But some private Letters advise, that fresh Broils are likely to happen between Denmark and Russia, relative to Holstein.

Mean while they send us Word from Hanover, that the Number of their Forces, which in Time of Peace were to be 24,000, will be reduced to 14,000.

The Prince of Prussia, accompanied by his Brother, made a Visit on the 9th Inst. to the Court of Saxe-Gotha; and a Marriage is talked of between his Royal Highness and a Princess of this House.

It is said that, by the Definitive Treaty, the Privilege claimed by the French of fishing in the Bay of St. Laurence, is entirely renounced; and that in the East-Indies the French are to have no Restitution of Territory, but only the Liberty of trading in their Comptoirs, under British Protection.

It is said that the Lottery of the present Year will be divided into two Classes; and that the first will be drawn in May, and the second in November.

The Marquis of Granby's Letter of Thanks to the British Forces in Germany.

"Munster, Jan. 1. Lord Granby has hoped to have had it in his Power to have seen and taken his Leave of the Troops, before their Embarkation for England; but a severe Illness having detained him at Warberg, and his present State of Health obliging him to take another Route, he could not leave this Country without this public Testimony of his entire Approbation of their Conduct since he has had the Honour of commanding them.

"These Sentiments naturally call for his grateful Acknowledgments; he therefore returns his warmest Thanks to the Generals, Officers, and private Men, composing the whole British Corps for the Bravery, Zeal, Discipline, and good Conduct he has constantly experienced from every Individual; and his most particular and personal Thanks are due to them for their ready Obedience, upon all Occasions, to such Orders as his Station obliged him to give.

"His best Endeavours have always been directed to their Good by every Means in his Power; and he has the Satisfaction to think he has some Reason to flatter himself of their being convinced, if not of the Efficacy, at least of the Sincerity, of his Intentions, if he may judge by the noble return their Behaviour has made him; a Behaviour, that while it fills him with Gratitude, has endeared them to their King and Country, and has covered them with Glory and Honour.

"Highly sensible of their Merit, he shall continue, while he lives, to look upon it as much his Duty, as it will for ever be his Inclination, to give them every possible Proof of his Affection and Esteem; which he should be happy to make as apparent as their Valour has been, and will be conspicuous and exemplary to their After Ages."

A private Letter from Germany, by the last Post, advises, that a Treaty of Peace was signed the 1st Instant, by which the Dutchy of Cleves, so far as the last Isle of the Banks of the Rhine, is to be given to the Empress Queen, in lieu of which Lorraine, and the two Principalities of Upper Guelder, are to be yielded to the King of Prussia.

We have received Advices, that the Empress Queen has ceded the greatest Part of her Italian Dominions to Don Lewis of Spain, who is to marry one of the Archduchesses of Austria.

The King of Prussia hath appointed Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, late Commander in Chief of the Allied Army, to be the Governor of Magdeburg.

A Frigate came into the Jamaica Fleet the 23d of January, and acquainted them of a Peace; upon which they all left the Hampshire and Portsmouth Men of War, their Convoy, and there is Advice of the safe Arrival of them in England.

The Foot Guards are to be ordered to fix Men in each Company, and the three Battalions that are now Abroad, are to be filled to that Complement with new Recruits.

We hear that several infamous Practices have been discovered, relating to some foreign Contracts for the Army and Navy, and that a full Inquiry will be made into their Accounts.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Jan. 25.

"On a Complaint made to the King of England by the Duke de Choiseuil, that a Frigate in the Service of the East-India Company, provided with a Privateer Commission by his Britannic Majesty, and bound to the Isles of France with Provisions, had been stopt by an English Vessel, and carried into Plymouth, under Pretext that the King's Licence was not sufficient, and that she ought to have had a Pass from the Secretary of England; the Court of London ordered the Vessel to be discharged, and left the Punishment of the Captain who detained her, to the King of France. His Majesty referred it to the Duke de Choiseuil, and the Duke has left it to be decided by the East-India Company."

The French King, moved by the Solicitations of the Princess of Rohan, has given Orders, that the Remains of the Body of the Count de Clermont, who died at the Abbey of St. Germain l'Auxerrois.

Feb. 26. They write from Bristol, that on Sunday Morning last, a Sailor at Totness in Devonshire, was employed in washing her Child in several Waters, and after washing it in the Mother's Address some Time, the Child cried for Water, and getting Water near the Fire, which it saw, it stripped the Child naked, and washing it therewith, it soon died.

We hear from Wilhelmsthal, that all Hostilities between the Hessian Troops between them Powers and the Hessians, which it is said commenced, are now absolutely at an end. Those in Hesse-Cassel, Hesse-Darmstadt Troops, amounting to between Twenty and Thirty Thousand Men, are to be commanded by the Duke of Brunswick and Count de Lippe, who supplied the Place of Prince Ferdinand.

drowned. Such general Floods were never known in that Country.

Extract of a Letter from Wisbech, Feb. 25.

"Saturday last, between Cowland and Spalding, the River Welling, in the County of Lincoln, by the Force of the Waters, broke the Bank, and carried away a House, called Brothers House, consisting of Frame-Work, near 60 Yards Distance before the Family discovered it, they being all at Dinner; but on looking out, found themselves surrounded with Water. By the Assistance of a Boat they were all taken out, or else must have perished. And on the same Day four large Breaches in the great Bank between Peterborough and Wisbech, in the Isle of Ely, in the County of Cambridge, broke out of the River Ouse, and the Waters meeting together, have overflowed near four Hundred Thousand Acres of Land, and the Loss is computed at near 100,000 l.

On Monday last, the Bakewell Postman was found dead in the Snow, near Chatsworth Park, in Derbyshire. A poor Man, upwards of Eighty, was lost in the Storm.

In the Storm of Saturday, the 12th Inst. Mr. Hodgson, Innkeeper at Addington, in Yorkshire, perished in the Snow on Bumbles Moor, on his Return from Skipton-Market, and a Servant belonging to Mr. Roper, of Steeton, was lost near Biddlesden-Hall.

CHARLES-TOWN (in South-Carolina) March 26.

Extract of a Letter, dated Havannah, March 18.

"We expect Admiral Keppel here from Jamaica about the Middle of May, and imagine we may all leave this Place in about three Months: Some Transports are arrived here from Jamaica to carry off the Garrison, but their Destination is not known. Six Spanish Prize Ships of War, all of the Line, viz. Tigre, of 70 Guns; Reyna, of 70; Soverano, of 70, Aquillon, of 70, and San Antonio, of 60 Guns, are now almost ready for the Sea, and are to be sent to England; they are to be manned from the Ships here and at Jamaica, with Sailors sufficient to work them, and a Number of Soldiers are to be put on board each Ship. The America, and the two Ships of War that were on the Stocks, are to be burnt.——The Dock-Yards have been destroyed in such a Manner, as will put it out of the Power of the Spaniards to build any Men of War here for 3 Years at least."

BOSTON, April 4.

We hear from New-London, that on Tuesday last Died there, Capt. NATHANIEL GREEN, a Gentleman of an honest and fair Character.

NEW-YORK, April 21.

Monday last his Majesty's Packet the Earl of Halifax, Capt. Boulderson, arrived here from Falmouth, which she left on Saturday the third of March, and brought the February Mail. The Duke of Cumberland Packet Boat, Capt. Goodrich, with the Mail from New-York, arrived at Falmouth the 2d of March last. Another Packet is expected here from England in a few Days, which no doubt will bring the Copy of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, none of the Articles of which, that we can find, had been made public when the last Advices brought by Captain Boulderson, were sent from London. It is almost certain that the Treaty of Peace between the Empress Queen, and the Kings of Prussia and Poland, has been concluded, though we have no particular, nor authoritative Account of it, and we have the greatest Reason to expect a general Peace between all the Powers in Europe.

April 25: On the 21st of February last His Majesty's Sloop Favret, Capt. Clark, carried into Barbadoes a large Spanish Ship, mounting 18 Six and Nine-Pounders, taken ten Days before the Cessation of Arms, as she lay at Anchor under the West End of Porto Rico. She was from the Caracca's, and is esteemed a very rich Prize. [This is another of the Caracca Fleets out of which the Temeraire Frigate and Jamaica Privateer took two.]
